Richard P. Garmany Tennis & Leadership Award

AWARD DESCRIPTION:

The Richard P. Garmany Tennis & Leadership Award was established in 2011 to honor the late Richard P. Garmany, a long-time recreational tennis player who unselfishly gave his time and energy to promote the sport of tennis. This award recognizes one male and one female MastersqGames Tennis Participant who through guidance and by their example have encouraged and inspired others to play tennis, assume leadership roles and provide education to the tennis community. This award is supported by the Richard P. Garmany Fund at the Hartford Foundation for Public Giving.*

ABOUT RICHARD P. GARMANY:

Before his death in 2008, Mr. Garmany, a former executive at Aetna, created a donor-advised fund at the Hartford Foundation through his will. Since then, grants totaling more than $1 million have been awarded to support dozens of nonprofits, including Hartford Hospital, the Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies, Connecticut Public Broadcasting Network, the Hartford Symphony Orchestra and the Connecticut River Watershed Council.

2012 WINNERS:

Elizabeth McCracken: She runs a local fitness business appropriately called, ± CANqwhere she works with many older citizens with interests in getting them into good physical and mental shape. In 2012, Bobette competed in the 75-79 age division at the Connecticut MastersqGames in both singles and doubles. The 2012 Games+was her 8th year participating in our Tennis Tournament.

Ernie Uthgenannt: He is a noted tennis player, instructor and advocate. Ernie has been playing tennis for 58 years and teaching tennis for 54 years. He has been ranked in New England¢ top tennis players for both singles and doubles several times, including being ranked #1 in New England 50+ singles and doubles, #1 in Father and Son 60+ doubles and #1 in 70+ singles and doubles. Ernie first participated in the Connecticut MastersqGames in 1992, winning gold medals virtually every year since then in both basketball and tennis.
